Is Presented to

Ryan Moody

Ryan is recognized for his ability to excel in both technical development and project leadership.

As a mechanical engineer, he has designed enabling technologies for Countermeasure, RILS, and the demo Ranger vehicles.

At the same time he has managed customers, large subcontractors, and the internal engineering team to execute these projects and submit proposals for significant new funding.

In approaching all these problems Ryan brings his unfailing positive attitude while proposing crazy novel solutions that actually work!
